MyCityMyBudget – Citizen engagement through workshops

Workshops (Citizen interaction sessions) were conducted at various citizen associations across Bengaluru to gather inputs from the citizens about the civic issues affecting them in their locality that should be addressed in the municipal budget for the year 2016-17. The workshops were moderated by IChangeMyCity (Janaagraha) and held at the offices of the respective citizens associations.

Discussion

The citizens at the workshop discuss about the civic issues that affects them in their locality

Submission of inputs

The citizens then shortlist and list down list of issues that should be included in the budget in the input form

Voting

In a voting session, all members of the association give their vote on the shortlisted issues that should be considered

Prioritization

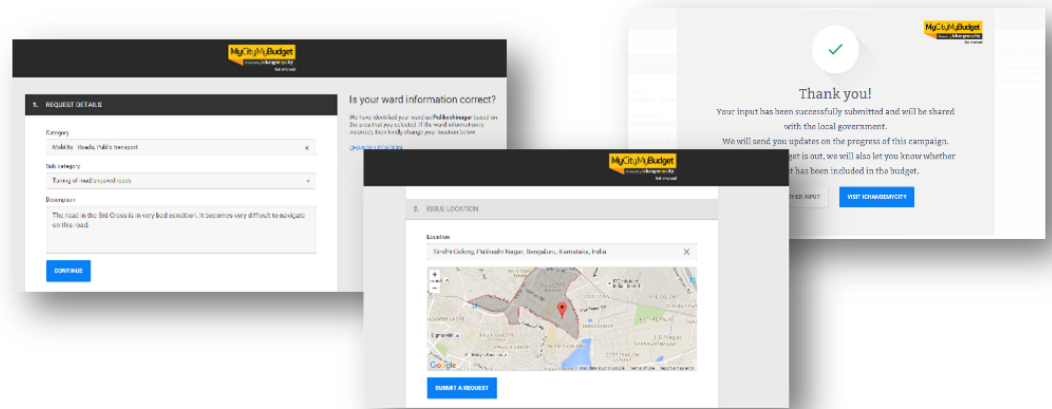

Based on the number of votes received, a final list is drawn which will contain the civic issues that needs to be addressed on priority

Get involved!

MyCityMyBudget – Citizen input collection on IChangeMyCity.com

The inputs from citizens were also collected online - on IChangeMyCity website (www.ichangemycity.com). The citizens were provided with an online form that enabled them to fill out inputs pertaining to their ward. They could also view the inputs shared by their neighbours in their ward and show support by VOTING UP on their inputs. Discussions about the civic issues to be considered also took place online on various social media sites.

3664	Safety and Crime	Increase police beat patrolling	Rajeshwari Niwas, Chennammana Kere, Kathreguppe, BSK 3rd Stage, Banashankari, Bengaluru, Karnataka 560085, India	Off-late we notice youth between age group of 16 -25 years congregating in some places of Channammanakere Achukut. It is sometimes indecent as young couples standing in corners amid residential areas late in nights and having intimate encounters. There is a pattern developing with this happening at the corner road housing Women PG (7th Cross and 8th cross cornering 3rd main, parampara road). Further we also see youth parking vehicles on road/chatting and getting into drag races. Intermittent complaints to CKA police station is of no use. Hence, it is necessary to increase police beat patrolling on this road to ensure these kind of activities are stopped.	Bangalore City Police	Skumarbhon
